

The Portland Trust's team and programs' graduates, stand together with the residents of the South who withstood a terrible and inhuman attack, with the grieving families, the wounded and all the people of Israel. Together under the attack, together for restoration and joint future.